Re: DMJ Associates, L.L.C. v. Carl A. Capasso, et al.
Civil Action No. 97-Civ-7285 (DLI) (RML)

Dear Magistrate Levy:

As Your Honor is aware, this office represents defendant/third-party plaintiff Exxon Mobil Corporation ("ExxonMobil") in the above-referenced matter. As Your Honor is also aware, the Court granted third-party plaintiffs ExxonMobil and Quanta Resources Corporation (collectively "TPPs") permission to file supplemental papers in further opposition to the motions by certain third-party defendants ("TPDs") for partial summary judgment as to TPPs' CERCLA Section 107 claim as asserted in their Third Amended Third-Party Complaint. The parties agreed that TPPs would submit these papers today, March 17, 2014. Unfortunately, due to unforeseen personal circumstances, my office has requested a one day extension of the time to file TPPs' further opposition papers, to which William Hatfield, Esq., has consented on behalf of TPDs. TPPs, in exchange, have granted TPDs a one-day extension on their time to file any reply papers.

Thank you for Your Honor's attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Alicyn B. Craig
